

Williams Magazine

JAMES D. ROSENTHAL,

April 26, 2015. Jim earned his MBA from Columbia University in 1980 and had a long career as a real estate broker in New York. He enjoyed the theater, opera and symphony, and he was a devoted museum patron. He and his husband, Marvin, established the James D. Rosenthal & Marvin Y. Schofer Scholarship Fund at Juilliard. As a Williams alumnus, he served on the BiGLATA Executive Committee and was a Williams College Museum of Art fellow. He was predeceased in 2013 by Marvin, to whom he had been married for 34 years.

R OSENTHAL--James D., on April 26 after a long illness. Devoted companion to his spouse Marvin Y. Schofer, who predeceased him. He was raised in Scarsdale, NY and graduated Williams College, where he majored in Art History. He received an MBA from Columbia University, after which he enjoyed a long and productive career as a real estate broker. He was an avid theatre-goer, opera and symphony patron, and museum devotee. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Juilliard School for the James D. Rosenthal and Marvin Y. Schofer Scholarship Fund.

Published by New York Times on May 3, 2015.